Built home on the bluff on the northwest side of the Island. Added on so relatives could stay when visiting. Died young and the house was sold.

Married a woman called Jeanette who died in July, 1969. His daughter Jean married Doug Young who was once Town Chairman. Burgoon helped raise funds for the original Community Center. He manufactured big pumps. His land was homesteaded by the McDonalds in 1853, who owned it until 1915, and bought the Hagen Brothers fishing company. Early in the 1950's Burgoon bought it.
