

David Kagnetosh (Kaquetosh)

Born: About 1830
On Island
Died:

Period of Service: Civil War

Sources: Jessie Miner Early Days, Military Record of Rock Island

According to Jessie Miner, David Kagnetosh was the only soldier of the Civil War actually born “in the Town”, that is, on Washington Island. He was born about 1830 “on the southeast point of the Island near Shellswick’s dock.” Early Days

“On the southeast point of Washington Island near Shellswick’s dock, about 80 years ago , there was born David Kagnetosh, the only soldier of the Civil War who was born in the town of Washington. He is a full-blooded Menomonee Indian.” Rock Island

There is no other mention of him known.